BMCA Silent Auction 35th Annual BMCA Conference

Don't have homemade mittens? A drawing by Bonnie? A copy of your colleague's book?
Can you crochet? Do you have a book want others to read? What about those earrings?
Need a somatic session or class?

Now is your chance!!!!

The BMCA Silent Auction is a celebratory tradition that offers competitive bidding on homemade clothing, art work, books, jewelry, vacations, BMC sessions/classes, and unique offerings of all kinds DONATED BY BMCA MEMBERS and CONFEREES FROM AROUND THE WORLD.

All donated treasures made as offerings can be sent by mail or brought to the conference.

Items will be placed on tables for conferees to review, enjoy, and—hopefully—take home.

For an additional $15 added to your purchase price, Denison conference staff will mail your items domestically (within the US) to help you get them home.

So don't let that airport luggage fee stop you!

ALL PROCEEDS BENEFIT THE BODY-MIND CENTERING® ASSOCIATION.

Mail your donations to:
