

ON SITE Check-in for all Conference Attendees

WELCOME to the 35th Annual BMCA Conference.

Please arrive several hours before the start of the conference to check-in at the conference registration desk, settle in to dormitory housing and enjoy a meal in the dining hall. All conferees need to check-in at the Conference registration desk in the lobby of the Eisner Performing Arts Center [Conference Central] which is accessible from either the Broadway or South Mulberry Street Parking Lot entrances to receive conference information packets, campus identification cards, your Conference Central locker assignment, key to dorm rooms. The dormitory is a 10-minute walk from the registration desk area.

Registration desk hours:

Monday, June 20 and Tuesday June 21: 9am to 6pm

Wednesday, June 22 through Saturday, June 25: 8am to 6pm

Sunday, June 10: 8am to 1pm

Please contact Lisa at admin@bmcassociation.org, in advance, if arriving when the registration desk is not open.

COVID-19 Precautions & Protocols:

- All on site residents will be assigned single rooms.
- All on site presenters and registrants and staff will be required to provide proof of vaccination, and wear masks at all times on campus.
- Free rapid Covid tests will be available at registration throughout the conference.

There will be more specificity closer to the conference.

Be Sure To Bring:

- YOUR REGISTRATION I.D. NUMBER. On Site registrants will need their individual registration I.D. for STREAMING you wish to do aside from attending live workshops/presentations/panels/performances. Desk top computers are available at CONFERENCE CENTRAL (Eisner PAC)
- Your recent email from Conferences@bmcassociation.org with the CONFERENCE ZOOM LINK.
