This workshop series will explore the Neurocellular Patterns and their role in organizing our movement, perceptions, and the basic elements of learning and communication. They are the building blocks of human movement and help form the basis of our psychophysical expression.

The developmental process can facilitate the evolution of our consciousness and alleviate body-mind problems at their root level. Gaps in development can lead to alignment/movement problems, imbalances within the body-systems, and problems in organization and memory.

This workshop will grow your kinesthetic connections and body intelligence. It is recommended for anyone interested in the fields of Yoga, Movement, Dance, Somatics, Body Mind Modalities, and Therapeutic approaches.
